About This Content

The largest asteroid in the belt has finally chartered its first colony and there's money to be made! Humanity proved that we could thrive on Mars... but, now we need to learn how to survive on a dead rock. Enjoy the brand new scenery of Ceres while mining for Uranium, a resource unique to the landscape of the frozen asteroid. Use it to power the new Nuclear Power Plant building and fuel your colony while you fight for dominance of the stock market once again!

Features:

- New Location: Ceres - The largest asteroid in the asteroid belt, Ceres presents great challenges to colonization with its vast spans of ice and rock. Enjoy some new scenery as you crush your competition to remain on top of the stock market.
- New Resource: Uranium - Only available on Ceres, this mineable resource provides power to Power Plants and is just one more way to manipulate the stock market in your favor.
- New Building: Nuclear Power Plant - The new Power Plant is an excellent source of energy for your colony and can be built on any tile. This building is powered by Uranium and is only available on Ceres.
- New Patent: Liquid Batteries - This new patent could be critical to the success of your colony on Ceres. Liquid Batteries will allow you to keep your Solar Condenser running no matter what time of the day it is, collecting valuable carbon, oxygen, and water so you can keep your operations running smoothly.
- New Challenge: Depleting Resources - On Ceres, resources deplete as they are used. Over time, your plots will start to decrease and you will need to be on the lookout for new resource points to mine since even the best of them won't last forever.

This is not a game for everyone. It forces you brutally to experiment, fail, learn, and eventually win. It is the main reason why I like this game. I mean, some people like game mechanics being clear and explained so they can concentrate on beating the actual game, but that's not the point here. The amount of satisfaction that you get after winning for the first time is a good payoff for the amount of hours you devote on this game. I got my first real victory after 70 hours (don't be scared, it usually takes less time to do it, I'm just... a bit clumsy) and I was really happy. After next 20 hours I got my first major victory and this was the best reward I could imagine. The feeling that I now understand this whole world and rules that are present here is definitely not underwhelming.

This is not a game for everyone. It forces you to spend some time on it until you could understand anything. But is it worth it? Yes.. So I'm nearly a decade late playing this masterpiece as I've had it in my library for years untouched (I know right?!). With this being the first time I've played it nearly ten years later, I understand the hype. The graphics are still stunning, the physics are perfect, and the storyline and gameplay are on a level of their own. This game gives you that sense of epicness that so many FPS's lack. It does get linear towards the end, but the action picks up so I wasn't disappointed. One of the best games I've ever played, hands down.. A very nice game with tricky puzzles. The graphics are not the newest but it's still a game which can be very enjoyable because of the story. In addition you must save your game with small breaks because of the lack of autosave and of game over situations (fire in the woods or the stealth part) where you must load the last save you made. Because of this issue I had lots of replays because I forgot to save my game and I had to replay 3 hours of the game again.. First of all, the game is very fun to play with a friend and has a unique concept but what drives me mad is the fact that they made it f2p right after I bought it but was cheap anyway so is not that bad. It's well optimized, loads of runes and a very big variety of spells for a small game like this.

Unfortunately the game is dead, the devs are no longer working on it even though it has a great potential. There could be added more maps, spells, customizable masks.

I really recommend this game but I warn you to play it with a friend else you are going to grow a mighty beard waiting to find a game.. I mean it's a game that's for sure. If you want to spend a dollar on it go for it but I only spent .49 so I am not going to refund it but that doesn't mean I plan on playing it past the 33 minutes I have.. I really like this game, I really do, there are bugs and there are glitches but the game is really nice. TL;DR review: Fun cheap game that will entertain you for awhile but has some bugs that make the game harder and sometimes it won't get passed the loading screen.

I will be making a let's play video on my channel Krisfire that I will add later.

Longer review now: The game is a fun little indie game that is simple but complex in how you want to play. you can go through the game without killing the enemies or you can just rush to the exit without a second thought on picking items up or killing baddies. you can go through the game with your trusty whip or you can upgrade to an UZI and shoot the living crap out of all the monsters that come your way, it's up to you.

There's issues when it comes to fighting monsters with the whip, one being they are crazy fast and your whip is slow, could be a game feature but it might also not, after I got the UZI I didn't have problems killing monsters.

There has only been one game breaking glitch I have seen and it's when starting the game or after you die it shows a loading screen, it loads to the end but then freezes and won't finish loading. That was the only big bug I've seen in the game, others like monster's spears going through walls along with UZI bullets doing the same or when you stop falling by holding on to the wall then let go to fall again you maintain the same speed. Just little bugs but still worth mentioning.

Pros:

Cheap as can be. $2.

Fun time waster.

Fun pixel graphics.

Fun gameplay that I haven't seen in a while.

Meh:

The Music.

Bugs (Not really a con or a pro. just Meh)

Cons:

No options menu to change settings like music vol and others.
Freezes at opening at times.

Like my TL:DR said up top, It's a fun game thats cheap so I don't expect AAA quality, the game is worth the $2 for a time killer. Just watch out for the game not starting right!. I got this game for 10 cents last winter sale would say this is a great game. I'm really enjoying this game. It gives a cool twist on the classic Tower Defence genre - where you control the towers, adding an extra layer to the gameplay - and does it with a satisfying style.

It seems to be the dev's first foray into the Steam Store, and he's done a good job of it. If you like simple, fun, addictive strategy games, it's worth checking out.

Well here I am with just over 4 hours of gameplay writing a review about this game Star Fleet Rogue Adventures....a bit of a mouthful I know.

What do I think...?

Well its very addictive and it has that strange quality which distorts time...I thought I was only playing for about an hour but when I finally checked it was 4 hours later....note to devs...STOP MESSING WITH TIME !!!....you are messing with forces you do not understand....you could destroy all of humanity when you mess with time distortion...er...anyway I digress.

Back to the review. The graphics are nothing to write home about and I suspect a lot of people are going to be put off. But they would be making a terrible mistake..for they would be missing a gem laden with gameplay. You can explore planets, mine asteroids, board other ships and have space battles...amongst lots of other things.

You have to explore wormholes and send probes through them to discover the end points in a kinda arcade minigame. It sounds worse than it is as I find the various minigames are a nice change of pace from the overall strategic challenge which is to destroy your chosen alien race.

This is accomplished by heading towards their base sector by sector whilst also exploring alien planets for resources to sustain your fleet.

You also have research. By the way all the alien races have a level from 1-9 with 9 being the toughest. Also you can choose to be higher level race only once you have conquered it.

Achievements are a nice touch here....they give you tangible in game benefits and are not just for show. Such as a nice artifact to improve your gunnery etc...

I have only touched the surface of this game but I look forward to more to be added by the dev to what could turn out to be a great game.

So yes I highly reccomend you get this as soon as possible If you like good gameplay and dont overly value graphics,

You will not like this game if you prefer twitch based arcade games with very little planning...however you will love it if you like deep and thoughtful strategy served with a side order of alien mayhem complete with pirates and nasty life forms that want to spill your tea and generally ruin your day in a very unsportsmanlike fashion.

Oh also I only discovered this game by accident as I was searching Steam for something interesting to buy. This really was not well advertised but im glad I discovered it.

Go get it now.....oh and thanks for reading this rather rambling review....love ya all. A completely hollow experience. The team aspect really ruins gameplay and it really should be a 1v1 fighter. Ranged characters feel completely useless as 99% of your attacks will miss and you'll be countered immediately. Looks great though. At the price of free, I really do not think it is worth the time of downloading it. I bought the deluxe edition and I really think I would have spent the 44.99 more wisely by burning it for warmth even though it is 80+ degrees here.. Kid-Friendly version of Godzilla! :D. Best puzzlegame ever. ::Warning! Very Addictive!::

Zipple World is literally a hidden gem in the Steam Store, and although I have just started playing, I have already fallen in love with this masterpiece that can only be described as pure genius. Although the game is a bit slow at first, it really does get more intense around level 14. Almost everything about this game I absolutely adore. The level designs, the animations, the weapons, and the 3D models. And as I said before, this game is very addictive! I am already hooked on this game and I haven't even been playing for an hour! Another great thing about this game is the file size! It takes up very little space on your computer and it only takes around 5 minutes to download, making this game a quick to play game when your on a busy day and only have a few minutes to spare!

However, there are a few things that I personally think should be improved.

The sound effects are not that good, some of them honestly sound pixelated. And the music is not that great either, and it's not that it's bad or anything, it just doesn't fit with the intense playing mechanic. And lastly, the biggest problem with this game are the controls. They are far too quick and even jerky almost. I wish there was a way to turn down the sensitivity.

As far as I can think, these are the only problems that I have experienced with the game, everything else runs like butter and is incredibly fun. I also just noticed that they have also created a sequel! Once I have unlocked all of the achievements for Zipple World, I am going to defiantly get Zipple World 2!

Great job developers! Keep up the great work!. this game sucks. Very fun VR gem.. I am making this review with my honest views and compared to the other add-ons I have for this OMSI 2 game. I am somewhat disappointed with this AI add-on because for a payware add-on. There is no official branding on ANY of the vehicles. For a penny under a \u00a310 for this add-on. The vehicles such as the Mercedes and the VW cars and the MAN trucks should have their branding present because even the default AI traffic that comes with OMSI 2 out of the box even has the vehicle badges present on the AI vehicles. So I can understand why many of the other reviews that are German are negative for this product as it could have been better.

Just to prove a point. Here is some screenshots of the AI cars in action (IGNORE THE BUSES!).

You get the point. As they are lack official badges. Had this add-on been cheaper around \u00a36. I would have gave this add-on a positive review. But unless Halycon Media fixes this and adds the official maker badges to the vehicles. I would only recommend getting this add-on in the sales only.

Overall Rating: 4/10.. Ocrest is really well done. The delivery via Steam is not.

Your purchase will give you access to a stream. not a download. Unfortunately, you can't pause the movie and allow the whole thing to buffer before watching - it will only allow a bit to be buffered at a time.

So if you want to watch with good resolution (and why wouldn't you) you may be forced to watch a few minutes. take a break. watch a few minutes. etc through the whole thing like I did. In my opinion that spoils the experience quite a bit, so I recommend finding another way to watch it.

Of course, if you have blazing download speeds and the servers are humming along nicely you might have no problem. And Steam may eventually fix the buffering issue. But I would have appreciated a warning in the reviews I checked, so I'm taking time to write one. Cheers!. If anyone wants to Play Zombies with me :) I would be glad to play send me a Message
